

I can honestly say that I've not received any telemarketing calls in the last 6 monthes. This is a welcome change in my family's life. Perhaps instead of weakening the state statute to match the federal statute, it would be better to strengthen the federal statute using the NJ state statute as a model. Best wishes!